Camino Fiber Network Cooperative, Inc. Disclosure Document

I understand my membership fee is fully at risk and the Camino Fiber Network Cooperative (CFNC) provides no assurance it will be able to offer advanced telecommunications services due to risk factors beyond its control including inability to raise sufficient capital from members, investors and government subsidies as well as unforeseen obstacles that make construction of the network unfeasible including but not limited to unexpected costs, inability to obtain middle mile access on reasonable terms and conditions, and unanticipated regulatory and legal challenges.

The Camino Fiber Network Cooperative, Inc. is incorporated as a cooperative under the California Consumer Cooperative Corporation Law. Members and prospective members may receive free of charge information regarding the following matters, among others: restrictions upon the transfer of memberships; conditions for levying of dues, assessments, etc.; amount and nature of services to be contributed by members; conditions under which memberships are redeemable; and rules by which the voting power and proprietary rights of membership are to be determined. These matters are addressed in the cooperative's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, which will be furnished without charge to a member or prospective member upon written request to P.O. Box 355, Camino, CA 95709. They can also be viewed at the Camino Fiber Network Cooperative's website at caminofiber.net.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF TAX RESPONSIBILITY

I agree that for purposes of determining the amount of any distributions made to me by this cooperative, I shall treat the full amount of any distributions, with respect to my patronage, which are made in written notices of allocation (as defined in 26 U.S.C. §1388), which I receive, as income received in the year in which such written notices of allocation are received at their stated dollar amounts in the manner provided in 26 U.S.C. §1385(a).
